“Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.” I John 3:18

As the United Church of Christ, we stand united in Christ's love for all God's children and creation. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we carry our faith into this election. Whatever the outcome, we will step forward in courage and faith and be led by love throughout the season that follows.

Our commitments and our values will remain unchanged.
Together, we will:

- Deepen our faith in God: Creator, Christ, and Spirit.
- Respect and protect the inherent dignity of all people, including those of all sexual orientations and gender identities.
- Work toward becoming an anti-racist Church and eliminate the systemic entrenchment of white supremacy.
- Love all our neighbors as ourselves – including immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers.
- Care for God's creation and ensure it remains vital and vibrant for our children and theirs, for generations to come.

Whatever the outcome of the election on November 5th, we will “rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; persevere in prayer.” (Romans 12:12) We will renew our commitment to build a just world for all and will commit ourselves to love our neighbors not only with words, but through action and in truth.
